Filed On: October 21, 2014

State of West Virginia, et al.,

       Petitioners

   v.

Environmental Protection Agency,

       Respondent

City of New York, et al.,
            Intervenors

BEFORE: Henderson, Srinivasan, and Millett, Circuit Judges

O R D E R

Upon consideration of the motion to set a consolidated briefing schedule and to expedite consideration, the response thereto, and the reply; the motion to extend time to file dispositive motions and record, the response thereto, and the reply, it is ORDERED that the motion to set a consolidated briefing schedule and to expedite consideration be denied. Petitioners have failed to articulate the "strongly compelling" reasons that would justify expedition of this case. D.C. Circuit Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedures 33 (2013). It is

FURTHER ORDERED that the motion to extend time be denied. The certified index to the record is now due within 30 days of the date of this order. The parties are directed to address in their briefs whether this court has jurisdiction to review the settlement agreement at issue here. It is FURTHER ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that the parties submit proposed formats for the briefing of this case within 14 days of the date of this order. The parties are strongly urged to submit a joint proposal and are reminded that the court looks with extreme disfavor on repetitious submissions and will, where appropriate, require a joint brief of aligned parties with total words not to exceed the standard allotment for a single brief. Whether the parties are aligned or have disparate interests, they must provide detailed justifications for any request to file separate briefs or to exceed in the aggregate the standard word allotment. Requests to exceed the standard word allotment must specify the word allotment necessary for each issue.
